VEGAN

The new line completely vegetal, ethical and tasty

Vegan is a petfood line formulated only with vegetable ingredients, ideal for those looking for an ethical and tasty product.

Why a vegetable nutrition?

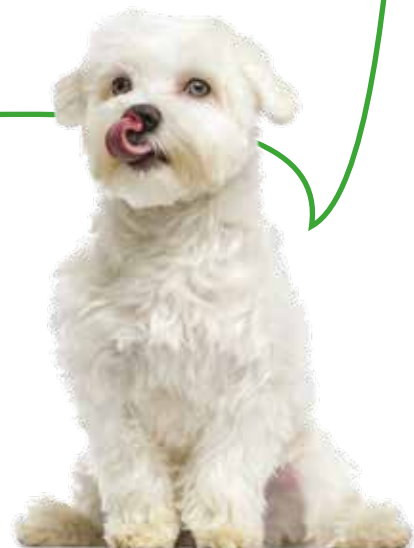

The vegetarian and vegan choices are now consolidated reality and more and more people are approaching this lifestyle for ethical, healthy reasons or just for simple curiosity.

It is growing the number of owners who choose also for their dogs and cats, to opt for a feeding that respects these principles, which can be useful also for meet specific nutritional needs.

Although, as is known, dogs and cats are animals they see in their ancestors the carnivores, in certain situations resort to one Vegetable feeding can be of real help to them.

In particular when other foods containing meat or animal derivatives, can trigger disorders of various kinds, cutaneous rather than intestinal, but also where diets specifications and use of hydrolysates did not bring results, the use of a vegetable diet, even for just a certain period of time, has been shown in many cases very effective.
